

Some Daily Expectations Sixth Grade - Mr. Duke

- The more responsible you are; the more freedom you get.
- The less responsible you are; the less freedom you get.
- Come to class prepared to learn
- Ask
- Pay attention
- Think
- Question
- Bring a good attitude, sense of humor, paper, pencil, assignments...
- Be nice
- Start work immediately. There is never "free-time"
- I end the class or period – you, the student, do not - the bell does not
- You will earn your own grades for participation and achievement
- Be wrong sometimes – Be okay with it – Learn – Move on
- Don't give up
- Understand that you may not get the math - YET
- Always be on task
- Always, always be on task
- Never be off task
- Never, ever be off task
- The more responsible you are; the more freedom you get.
- Put first and last names on all papers, including date and class period in upper right hand corner of every paper
- Have fun
- Be kind
- Help others
- If at first you don't succeed - try, try again.
- Everything in class is based upon respect and responsibility
- Tell me when you don't get it
- Have faith

"The purpose of education should be to teach us rather how to think, than what to think--rather to improve our minds, so as to enable us to think for ourselves, than to load the memory with thoughts of other men." Bill Beattie

"If there is no struggle, there is no progress." Frederick Douglass